Barolo Red

Pure pleasure

A wine tasting? But I'm not mobile anymore! Yes, sometimes it takes effort, but it's worth it! Why not embark on an adventure again, like Mike and Werner, who travel to a vineyard for a birthday celebration? The excitement starts as soon as they arrive. The walk through the vineyard. The experience of tasting wine straight from the barrel after it's aged. The atmosphere, the scents – Werner is thrilled that Mike persuaded him to join this adventure and made him so happy with the Barolo Red Rollator.
